

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

I am shocked by this lack of concern for the future of our country. The media is a very powerful tool and in the wrong hands, a weapon. It needs to be regarded with much more care. Each generation receives more and more of an education from the media with every technological advancement we achieve. Please do the right thing
